Teams: אש Fire & מים Water

Fake field test Color War breakout, a visit from chayalim and FIDF friends, drivers decorating buses, sports, and the "Were You Listening" game started off the fun!

The weather was gorgeous! The sportsmanship was inspiring! The leadership of our captains and their helpers was impressive! The banners were beautiful! The team songs were catchy and made us all want to sing along! The events, races, overtake, marathons and teambuilding were so competitive and fun!

As we go to print, it's close enough that we can't predict which team will win this Color War...you'll have to ask them who won when they get home today. However, the truth is that they are all winners! They played together, sang in harmony, helped each other, laughed together, braved the heatwave, cheered for their own team - and the other team.

Your children are all winners!!
