

Parsha, Hebrew & Dr. Seuss

The Kindergartners have so much fun with Mrs. Mammon! They do Parsha art, songs and dances - and they laugh a lot!

Ms. McDonnell (ELA) spent a really special hour with the kindergartners last Friday - with help from 6th grader Baruch Yefraimov. Ms. McDonnell read stories by Dr. Seuss in English and then Baruch read them in Hebrew! The kindergartners loved it! They really listened and tried to translate!

From the Principal Mrs. Lea Goldstein

Our 2017 Scholarship Auction campaign is in full swing! We are only three weeks away and have some announcements:

3.) Now's the time to be talking up the auction to friends and neighbors. It's a fun night out for a great cause! They can shop for gifts and get great deals! The food is always different and delicious! There's an open bar! Live musical entertainment featuring Rabbis Avi Kilimnick, Danny Goldstein and Adam Aranov!

4.) It's not too late to solicit donations of items for the auction! If you haven't procured anything yet, please help us out right away! Ask your employer, relatives...anyone with a business that makes products or provides services. We need your help!

Middos Menschen

Yerucham Dahari, 1st-grade - Yerucham saw a wrapper by the flower garden and picked it up and put it in the garbage on his own and with a smile. - Mrs. Davidowitz
Shlomo Mammon, 6th-grade - There was no chair at my davening seat, Shlomo noticed and brought one over for me. - Rabbi Roness
Leora Mirochnik, 2nd-grade - Leora was accidentally given a class dollar she did not earn, she was honest and told me about it! - Mrs. Polatoff
Elishama Texler, 4th-grade - During dismissal Elishama was mevater his place in line to a child who had been displaced. - Rabbi Chastain
Chana Yaras, 3rd-grade - The library was a little messy and Chana helped me clean up the books right away. She was such a big help! - Mrs. Mammon

Reminders

Conferences: We are looking forward to meeting with you at our parent-teacher team conferences this Wednesday (11/22/17). We attached appointment confirmation slips to last week's newsletter. If you have any questions or need to request a change or cancel, please call the office ASAP.

No School: Per our calendar, there is no school this Wednesday (11/22/17) due to full-day parent-teacher team conferences.

Save the Date: DHR's Scholarship Auction (Sunday, 12/10/17) is less than a month away! We need your help!! Please invite your friends, relatives and neighbors...it's going to be so much fun! Also, we still need assistance with soliciting more packages for auction. Please call the office if you can help!

Chanuka Soldier Project: All donations need to be in the DHR office by this Monday, November 20. Once again, Mrs. Chayala Diskind has offered to put together special care packages for the soldiers. She is hoping to do between 50 - 100 but would appreciate donations to help offset the cost of purchasing all the items. To participate, please send your contribution to school in an envelope labeled "Soldier Packages".

Mazel Tov To...

...Mr. Chaim & Mrs. Perel Mittel (DHR Teacher & alumnus) upon the birth of their daughter, Rus.

Thank You to...

...Mrs. Nancy Klein (and Congregation Rosh Pinah) for their donation.
...R' Micah & Michal Segelman & R' Danny & Lea Goldstein for their donations in memory of Mrs. Naomi Houllou, ה"ע (Mrs. Elisheva Berenstein's sister).
...Mrs. Yael Sloviter for visiting 2nd grade to share her expertise and experiences as a nurse as part of the community helpers unit. Ask the 2nd graders what a sphygmomanometer is!
...All of our students and staff who took the time to write letters to veterans. We delivered a big package of cards and letters to the local Veterans Outreach Center. The veterans are going to love them!
