

2nd Grade Award Ceremony

Wow! We were so impressed with the beautiful 1st semester awards ceremony in the 2nd grade. All of the students got individualized awards recognizing their unique accomplishments.

3rd Grade Writing Projects

Ms. Nau's third grade class has been working on the writing process while exploring animals of their choice. Check out their beautiful exhibit in the main hall!

משנכנס אדר מרבין בשמחה!

Adar has begun and we are having fun already! Students brought in donations for the Brighton Food Cupboard in exchange for the right to wear a hat or crazy hairstyle! It was very entertaining!

The 7/8 Boys' dancing and the 7th Boys' ice cream sales also added lots of ruach!

Nikayon Project

Next week we will be starting an exciting new school-wide initiative called "Project Nikayon". It's all about making our learning environment cleaner. Please stay tuned for more information about the project and the upcoming competition! The project was announced at dismissal today - ask your children to tell you all about it!

From the Principal Mrs. Lea Goldstein

What goes through your head when you see the following sentence: "Ad journal deadline is a week away!"? Are you thinking...

1. "Oh, yes, we need to do our ad right now"? If so, please follow-up on that impulse and send in your ad ASAP. Thank you!! An extra ad blank is attached to this newsletter.
2. "No, problem, I can do it next Friday"? Please don't procrastinate! We are short-staffed and don't have a team working on this, so the sooner you get your ad in, the easier it is for us to get it all done.
3. "I already committed to an ad, I just have to send over the text!"? That's fabulous, thank you, and please send over your text today.
4. "I did it all. Done. Sent in ad, payment and text." You are a superstar! We appreciate your assistance and generosity!
5. "Well, I'm not sure if we'll be putting in an ad this year..."? Please consider that DHR doesn't turn students away based on their parents' financial situation. DHR needs to raise $274,000 this year just to cover unfunded scholarships! We need all of DHR's parents, grandparents and friends to help make this a most successful journal. Also, if you are a parent receiving a discount or scholarship, please bear in mind that you have a $1,000 Give-or-Get contractual obligation. Finally, remember that our honorees are the wonderful Springuts, who are most worthy of honor, recognition and thanks!

As of today, including our "Wing" matchers (who are combining resources to match every $1,000 ad with $1,000), we are at almost $60,000 of our $150,000 goal! Please partner with us to make this huge! Thank you!!

Thank You to...

...Rabbi Danny Goldstein, Jeff & Lyn Springut and those who have solicited ads for our upcoming Scholarship Dinner Journal. We'd welcome assistance with soliciting during this last week of the campaign! ...The Akkerman family for donating delicious hamentashen for our students and staff to enjoy on Rosh Chodesh Adar! Yum!!

Mazel Tov to...

...Mrs. Davidowitz's 7/8 Girls: Parshas Shelach and Korach (two!) We studied, learned and did review. The spies, they lied, words of malice they did spew, And the national outcry grew and grew. The people rebelled against H-shem, And this began with respectable men! On to Korach - greedier and greedier, With his rebellion against Moshe the leader. To take Moshe's place, he did strive, And was swallowed by the earth; taken to the depths alive!

...Mrs. Shulman's 5/6 Girls who completed Parshas Beshalach. Can you try to guess why they had a "cold & sour" Siyum??
