

Happy Purim!

In keeping with our (really fun) annual tradition, today, on Taanis Esther, we offered the following: "help the poor in Eretz Yisrael by donating to Od Yosef Chai, and skip the uniform today"! Kids and teachers were allowed to come in costume or in clothes of their choice. So, this morning, we raised almost $350 for Od Yosef Chai to distribute in Israel this Purim! And, wow...you should've seen those costumes!!

Math Incentive Bake-off!

We had a great time with our math incentive bake-off! Let's keep up the great work in math, and continue to earn exciting incentives! Congratulations to the winners of the bake-off: Tziporah Abrahamson, Maya Chilungu, Simha Elmaleh and Chayala Hanson!

The Max Farash Memorial Day of Learning

The Max Farash Memorial Day of Learning at DHR took place this morning on the eve of Max's Yahrzeit. We had a beautiful father-son and DHR alumni Minyan, which included laining from our new Torah. Then, the fathers, their sons in grades 6-8 and the alumni had special hachana/Torah learning prep. time, followed by presentations from two of our Rabbis/middle school Judaic studies teachers. We are so appreciative of all that the Max & Marian Farash Foundation does for DHR and for Jewish education in Rochester. So, how can we truly say "thank you" to Max? The only way to positively impact those who have passed into the next world is to learn Torah or do good deeds for the benefit of their souls, which brings them eternal merit. Therefore, we are really excited about this opportunity to bring merit to Max's neshama/soul.

- Library Books - Many NEW library books are being returned in poor condition (ripped, missing covers and written in). Please do not let babies or toddlers rip, eat on, or scribble on DHR Library books. Parents will be responsible to replace or pay for these books.
